John in the garden of 36 Wood Lane, Church Warsop in the 1930's. This was a model colliery village with centrally supplied hot water piped to all houses, outside toilets next to the house and a bath fitted under the stairs. Their house had four large bedrooms and a large iron cooking range in the kitchen.

In 1913, John married Mary Peat from Mansfield Woodhouse. He was living with his family at 23 Mount Pleasant, Mansfield Woodhouse in 1910. John's sister Edith also married Mary's brother George. The two couples lived in the next street and were very close.

John was a collier, working at Warsop Main Colliery. He was also a keen gardener and kept a seasonal pig at the end of the garden each year, to fatten up for Christmas.
